MITES COLLECTION
NEXT WEEKEND

The monthly collection for Mites is NEXT WEEKEND. Did you know that it’s not just coins—checks and paper money are always welcome too! Look for the big white and purple box, and please be as generous as you can. Even a small amount can make a big difference.

The Mess of Mercy

The reformer Martin Luther once dreamed that he saw Jesus approaching his door. Luther panicked, seeing that his home was an absolute disaster inside. “How am I going to let the Lord of Life, Jesus Christ, come into a mess like this?” he wondered.

Luther raced to clean up, but the mess only increased. As Jesus knocked, Luther was resigned. “Come on in, if you think you can come into a place like this,” he told Jesus ... only to turn around and see that everything was now in order. All Luther had to do was let Jesus enter.

“Mercy is always a messy business,” writes pastor Daniel Emery Price at 1517.org. That’s true of the Reformation, just as it was when Jesus cleared moneychangers out of the temple. “There will always be those who condemn the mercy because of the mess,” notes Price. “Reformation is always about clearing the path to God’s radical grace.”

Hosts needed for

Do you enjoy a cup of coffee or tea and a goodie after church? We want to offer "Coffee And" twice a month but we cannot do it without your help! Please check the sign up sheet and add your name to an open date or two! Dates are flexible if you have a special occasion in mind.

Upcoming dates include

Nov. 24 & Dec. 8

"Coffee And" is an excellent way to promote fellowship - that is, shared participation within the community, an opportunity to support each other in our walk with Christ; the benefits are the love and support we receive from others.

Keep it simple--this is not meant to be a meal but a time to visit with each other after Service. It is the perfect opportunity to invite the visitor sitting near you to join us and introduce them to others.
